VIKING '69

LUTHER P. JACKSON
CONSOLIDATED HIGH SCHOOL

FOREWORD

We, the senior class of 1969 are highly honored to present to you our annual edition of the VIKING. We hope this book will reveal our thoughts, our desires, and our ambitions in life. It is our belief that after reading it thoroughly, you will better understand each of us first as an individual and then as a member of the senior class.

Looking back over our years at Jackson High School, we shall always treasure the many different activities we have undertaken. Each of us is filled with gratitude and respect for those who have strived to help us in our quest for knowledge.

We realize that we have ended one phase of our lives and must prepare ourselves for the next stage. All of us share mixed feelings of sorrow and happiness.

As you turn each page, we hope that you will join us as we strive to adjust to new horizons.

Theme: ADJUSTING TO NEW HORIZONS

"The ability to adapt to our surroundings . . .
is what maintains our existence in this everchanging world."

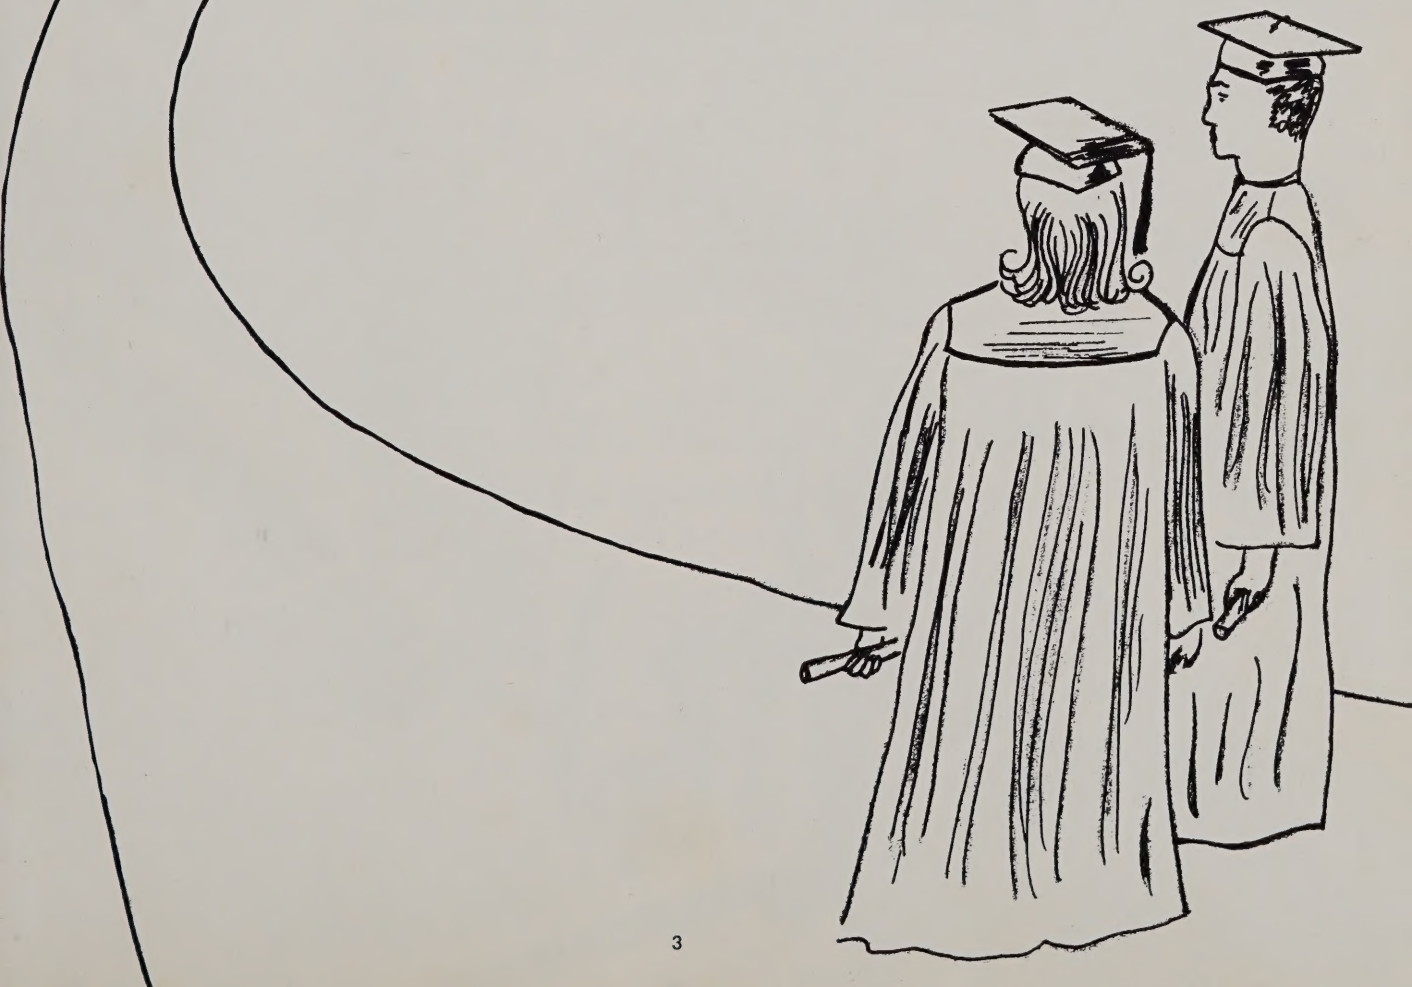
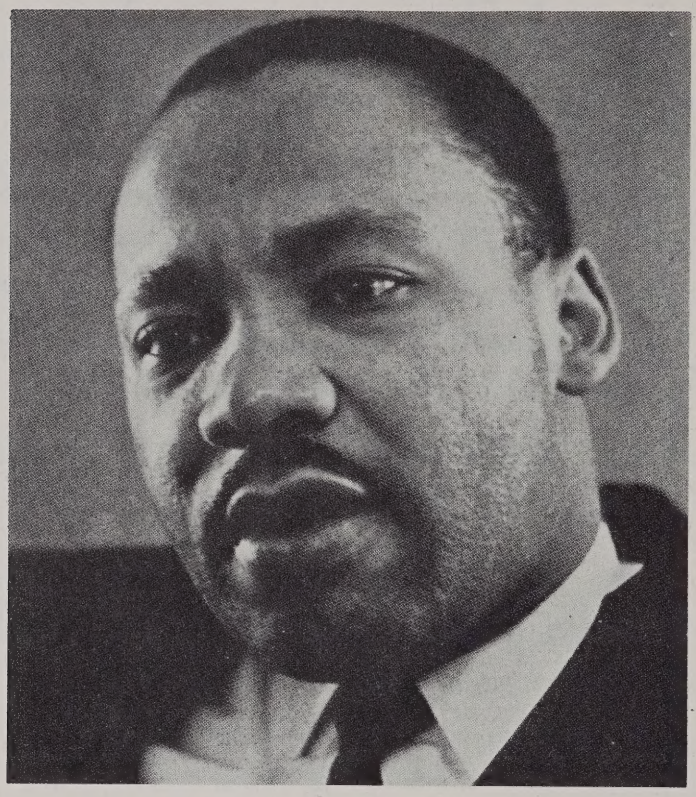
Dedication to Parents and Teachers

With our deepest gratitude, we, the class of '69 dedicate this picture of our progress to our beloved parents and dedicated teachers. They have shown us how to adjust to this world in which we live and have set examples for us to follow as we go on our journey through life.



DEDICATION



Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

IN MEMORIAM

He was a soldier in time of war
It was equality he was fighting for Slow and steady he made his plans and stressed his idea of freedom to all men.

He was faithful and true
A man of strength and honor too.
He fought so freely for the Negroes rights
Non-violence was his approach to win this fight.

Non-violence he used and respect he gained from not one;
but every man.

He had a dream
That some day will come true
Freedom for me as well as for you
He reached the mountain top when he took his rest
After fighting so righteously for the cause he loved best.

TRIBUTE TO OUR SPONSORS

Mrs. E. W. Dawson

Mrs. R. E. Metzger

Under the guidance of Mrs. Elizabeth W. Dawson and Mrs. Ruth Metzger, we express our gratitude and thanks for their assistance and advice in helping us to edit this yearbook of treasured memories of our days at Jackson.

Mrs. Dawson has worked with 12B for five years as homeroom teacher for which we feel a special gratitude for her guidance in many activities along our way.

We feel that the former sponsors of 12A should also be remembered because each one contributed in some way and left some gleaming light that may be a beacon for some of us in the future. We will always cherish them in our memories.

THE EDITOR SPEAKS

Denise Langhorne

We, the members of the graduation class of 1969 have put forth much effort in the past, in hope that we may each attain a goal in life. It is in my opinion that we have all taken our success and aims in life seriously.

Speaking for myself and fellow workers of the Viking Yearbook Staff, we believe we have done our very best to edit a yearbook rich in memories of the days spent at Jackson.

The members of the staff wish to thank the faculty, administration, and our parents for giving us their support in producing this yearbook.

As we say good-bye to Jackson, let us not forget all that is has meant to us in the past and all that it has helped us to prepare for in the future.

L. to R. SITTING; Dorothy Sims, Carolyn Taylor, Denise Langhorne, Renee Reed, and Joyce Cochran. STANDING; Jessie Butler, Beulah Allen, Garry Cosby, Sheila Tate, and Alice Sims.

REMARKS FROM OUR PRINCIPAL

Let me take this opportunity to extend my sincere congratulations to you, the graduating class of 1969.

Whatever you do and wherever you go, may you ever remember that behind the successful completion of your high school careers lies the thought and care and concern of a group of unselfish and forward-looking people who look with pride upon your achievement. I hope that you will cherish the years spent at L.P.J. and that you will be as proud that you are graduates of this institution as we are who have had the privilege of working with you.

When you have departed from us, I hope that you will have laid a foundation that will prepare you for a successful and satisfying future. However, before you reach for higher goals, I would like to offer you a bit of simple but good advice. Cultivate the desire to succeed--to achieve great things in life. Heed this. Don't squander your lives in petty pursuits. Develop within yourselves a sense of dignity, personal worth, and fair play. Forget not the moral and spiritual values that your parents, your teachers, your principal and the members of your church have tried to instill within you. Direct your energies, your talents and your desires to do what is best for yourselves and best for your country.

Finally, let this be your wish; that you may look back upon your graduation for years hence with the conviction that you have treated all men with honesty, fair play and goodwill, that you have put your heart into your work, and that you have done your best.

Seniors, here is a challenge for you. I dare you to stand up and be somebody.

CLASS HISTORY

On September 3, 1964, seventy-four nervous and determined eighth graders assembled in the Luther P. Jackson auditorium to hear welcoming remarks from our principal, Mr. S. E. Smith. We were divided into two sections: 8A and 8B. 8A had as sponsor Mrs. Jacqueline Wallace, and 8B--Mrs. E. W. Dawson. The highlights of the year were a Christmas Party and a class trip to Washington, D.C. with 7A class.

We are now the fifty-five proud freshmen of Luther P. Jackson. 9A welcomed a new sponsor, Mrs. H. H. Hayes and Mrs. Dawson remained with 9B. During the year, Sheila Tate took first place in the Math and Science Conference, and we gained a new member, Thomas Brodie.

Look out Jackson, here we come as Sophomores. We were welcomed by our new principal, Mr. R. L. Scales. Unfortunately, we lost 5 of our classmates over the summer. We now number fifty. We remained with our same sponsors. The highlights were the Christmas Party and Renee Reed being crowned Miss L. P. Jackson.

As Juniors, we are forty-seven in number. We remained with our same sponsors. We gave the first talent show of the season and sold candy to help sponsor the biggest social event of the year, The Junior-Senior Prom.

With the help of three juniors, James Hardy, Thomas Brodie, and Richard Johnson, the basketball team took first place in the district and fourth place at the State Tournament which was held at Virginia State College. James Hardy received a trophy for being the most valuable player.

There was a trip to Washington, D.C. sponsored by 11A, and a farewell party given to 11A by their sponsor, Mrs. H. Hayes.

Now, we are seniors at Jackson, and are facing one of the most important steps in our lives--graduation from high school. We are working hard to meet the demands of graduation. We are facing the future with determination and high expectations.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF '69

We, the senior class of 1969, of the Luther P. Jackson Consolidated School, being of sound mind and good disposition do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament. We know that our time here at Jackson is about to come to a close, but through the years we have obtained many valuable gifts and talents. Therefore, we take this opportunity to pass on our most precious possessions. We have faith that our gifts will be accepted in the same manner in which we give them, with humor and understanding.

To the administration and faculty we leave our deepest gratitude and sincere thanks for their untiring efforts. We realize that without their guidance and supervision our accomplishments could not have been achieved.

To the entire student body we leave our remarkable ability of self-control, which has led to our good behavior.

To the junior class we bequest the following gifts with the hope that they will bring happiness and prosperity to them.

Carolyn Taylor wills her sophisticated style of dress to Carolyn James.
Beulah Allen wills her short hemlines to Shirley West.
Gloria Morris wills her petite shape to LaVerne Taylor.
Patricia Parker wills her soft voice to Vera Chandler.
Anderson Scott wills his singing ability to David King.
Dorothy Sims wills her ability to get along with others to Peggy Smith.
Sheila Tate wills her dreamy eyes to Dyanne Johnson.
Mary Wilson wills her ladylike walk to Helen Jones.
Shirley James wills her shyness to Joyce Butler.
Renee Reed wills her leadership ability to Cally Johnson.
Darneitha Trent wills her eyes to Lelia Brown.
Moses Gibson wills his quiet disposition to Willie Chandler.
Donald King wills his dignity to Joseph Miller.
Denise Langhorne wills her fiery temper to Shirley Sims.

Lucy Trent wills her dancing ability to Ida Anderson.

Jerry Hatcher wills his rules on etiquette to Leroy Hatcher.

Joyce Cochran wills her slimness to Doris Mayo.

Gary Cosby wills his left knee-cap to Robert Brown.

Alice Sims wills her sincerity to Helen Jones.

Thomas Brodie wills his ability to play basketball to Gary Lewis.

John Richardson wills his physique to Curtis Mayo.

Reba Hobson wills her shortness to Ethel Trent.

Samuel Foster wills his dare-devil ways to Charlie Scott.

Robert Thomas wills his drving ability to Roger James.

William Brown wills his masculinity to Christopher Young.

Moses Gibson wills his 20-20 vision to Moses.

Joseph Toney leaves his height to Harry Hill.

Markel Woodson wills his weight to Bruce Tate.

Ellen Hardy wills her sewing ability to Helen Trent.

Melvin Williams wills his dancing ability to James Haskins.

Daniel Trent wills his quietness to James Johnson.

Joseph Miller wills his suaveness to Lawrence Monroe.

Jerry Wiley wills his flirtatious personality to Bernard Hatcher.

Lloyd Hatcher wills his physique to Gil Mayo.

Donald King wills his ability to stay out of trouble to Harry Crump.

Richard Johnson wills his masculinity to Garland Mayo.

Patricia Hatcher wills her height to Cynthia McNeal.

Barbara Morris wills her small size to Denise Belton.

Queenie Wilson wills her sweet personality to Vera Chandler.

Marjorie Allen wills her dignity to Denise Belton.

Steve Griffin wills his ability to play basketball to Willie Hendricks.

CLASS PROPHECY

Join me as I look into my crystal ball and foresee the future of the members of our 1969 graduating class.

The year is 1975 and I recognize the place as New York City. I see Dorothy Sims is working at Bellvue Hospital as a professional nurse and Jessie Butler and Marion Foster are also working there as Surgical Assistants. Donald King has become a doctor and has performed a successful heart transplant.

A few miles away at Carnegie Hall, Denise Langhorne is performing as a concert pianist. She is accompanied by Anderson Scott who is a well-known soloist in the United States and abroad. In the audience I see Barbara and Gloria Morris. Barbara is working as a secretary in the Joseph L. Miller Law Firm and Gloria's domestic life keeps her happy.

On Broadway, Tojon's owned by Tawanna Oliver, is one of the most elaborate fashion houses in New York. Inside Reba Hobson and Lucy Trent are working as seamstresses in the Alterations Department. Patricia Hatcher and Sheila Tate are enjoying their work as fashion models. Their hair stylists are none other than Ida Mosby and Darneitha Trent who own and manage their own Beauty Shop in the heart of downtown New York.

In Madison Square Garden I see Thomas Brodie is playing with the Harlem Globetrotters who have a 44 game winning streak.

Carolyn Taylor and Renee Reed are working in Business Administration at the White House in Washington, D.C.

Around the corner Garry Cosby works as a Technical Engineer at the America Electronic Space Center, a building designed by John Richardson who is one of the leading architects in the country.

Baltimore, Maryland comes into view, Patricia Parker, Catherine Trent and Beulah Allen are working as IBM Computer Operators and are doing quite well. I see Jerry Wiley is also working with IBM where he spends a great deal of his time flirting with the girls.

Margie Allen, Queenie Wilson and Shirley James are doing secretarial work at the Essex Insurance Company.

At John Hopkins I see Joyce Cochran is working in the special education of teaching handicapped children. Ellen Hardy is also working there as a registered nurse.

Congressman, Daniel Trent and Robert Thomas are boarding a plane to Paris to join the Vietnam Peace Talks. Their plane is being piloted by Moses Gibson and I see Stewardess, Alice Sims helping the passengers fasten their seat belts.

Jerry Hatcher is in Hollywood, California where he has his own television series. His script writer, Melvin Williams, has been quite successful also.

I see that Markel Woodson is also living in California. He has just completed the construction of the new Paramount Movie Studio.

Through the fog I see Samuel Foster, Joseph Toney, Steve Griffin, and William Brown on the Vietnam battlefield as the war goes on.

Soaring through the sky, Larry Gilliam and Lloyd Hatcher are piloting United States Air Force planes.

Mary Wilson and Carol Braxton can be seen caring for wounded soldiers. They are now nurses in the Women's Army Corps.

My vision blurs and the crystal ball becomes clear. We are again in the present.

CLASS POEM

Farewell to Jackson High

The time has come for us to depart
We treasure pleasant memories and take them to heart.
Our ambitions are so high, the demands so great; but we, the Vikings are willing to undertake the hardest job, task or career without fright and without fear.

For 12 years we've struggled with books, pencil and pen, knowing that knowledge was stored within.
The test of our courage was great indeed, but with our determination we knew we'd succeed.

Our parents and teachers have our greatest appreciation for helping us through our high school education.

Our journey through life we can now complete
No matter what personal ambitions we may seek.

Dear Jackson High we firmly believe you have helped us to acquire whatever we achieve.
